Having regard to the resolution n. 8/2015 issued on January 29, 2015 concerning distribution of resources, and following resolutions by the University Academic Bodies concerning staff management and distribution of resources for recruiting First and Second Tier Professors and Researchers;

Having regard to the resolution issued on 27 September 2016 by the Department of Life, Health and Environmental Sciences received with Prot. n. 30962 on October 13, 2016 concerning the request of a selection procedure to recruit n. 1 First Tier Professor - Academic Recruitment Field 05/A2 – Academic Discipline BIO/04;

Having regard to the resolution n. 280/2016 issued by the Board of Directors on 19 October 2016, authorizing the above mentioned public selection procedure for which the expense will be covered by the ordinary resources allocated by MIUR;

Having verified that the funds to cover the positions are available

DECREES THE FOLLOWING:

Art. 1 – A public selection procedure is being held at the University of L'Aquila to appoint 1 First Tier Professor in compliance with Art. 18, Par. 1 of Italian Law 240/2010, December 30, 2010 and related University Regulations:

Academic Recruitment Field 05/A2 – Plant Physiology

Academic Discipline BIO/04 – Plant Physiology

Place of Work: Department of Life, Health and Environmental Sciences

Research Activities: Research will focus on the study of the structure and function of plants' cell-wall in relation to their growth and development and to their interaction with pathogenic micro-organisms by means of molecular-biochemical, proteomics, and mass spectrometry methods in order to determine proteins' profiles expressed in the diverse number of plants' development processes, in the immune responses to infections and to treatments with exogenous (MAMPs) and endogenous (DAMPs) elicitors. In particular, the attention will focus on the issue of proteins which participate in synthesis and wall modification. Skills gained in such a field are essential for understanding key processes in the improvement of growth and disease resistance characteristics of plants of agronomic interest as well as for the use of biomasses as renewable energy sources. The issues object of the above mentioned research are of national and international interest within the Academic Recruitment Field BIO/04 – Plant Physiology

Teaching Activities: teaching activities will focus on courses taught in the degree in Biological Sciences (Plant Physiology course) and in the Master's degree in Health and Nutrition Biology (Vegetal Molecular Biotechnologies course) relating to the Accademic Recruitment Field BIO 04. The following will also be required: integrated, laboratory and seminar activities, students' guidance at the incoming and on the way, tutoring before and after graduation. Tutoring and teaching in Ph.D. courses is also required.

Foreign Language Requisite: English language test is not required.

Number of publications: Candidates are required to submit no more than 25 (twenty-five) publications.

Assessment criteria: to assess scientific qualifications, research and teaching activities, publications and the overall CV of the candidates the Examining Board will adopt criteria and parameters in compliance with acknowledged international qualitative standards, within the general criteria established by Ministerial Decree N. 344/2011. In particular, the Examining Board will:

- verify consistency of the candidate's scientific and teaching activities with the profile required in the selection procedure;

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DELL'AQUILA

AREA GESTIONE DELLE RISORSE UMANE
SETTORE CONCORSI E SELEZIONI

- use criteria acknowledged by the international scientific community of the Academic Discipline in order to assess the scientific activity, with particular reference to the candidate's individual contribution to publications;
- consider mainly qualifications related to the scientific activity of interest for the scientific commitment required, relevance and continuity of institutional teaching activity acquired in teaching subjects within the Academic Discipline BIO/04.

For the description of the subjects of the Academic Recruitment Fields indicated in this selection announcement reference has to be made to Ministerial Decree n. 159 June 12, 2012 and Ministerial Decree n. 855 October 30th, 2015.

Art. 2 - Admission Requisites

1. The selection procedure is open to:

- a) Candidates who have obtained National Scientific Qualification, in compliance with Art. 16 of Italian Law no. 240/2010, 30 December 2010, for the indicated Academic Recruitment Field OR for one of the Academic Recruitment Fields included in the same macro-sector, and for the functions specified in the selection procedure, or for higher functions, as long as such higher functions have not already been officially conferred to the candidate;
- b) Candidates who have obtained the required scientific qualification in compliance with Italian Law no. 210/1998, 3rd July 1998, for the tier for which the present selection procedure is being held, limited to the period of validity of the qualification obtained;
- c) Professors not employed within the University of L'Aquila who are already working elsewhere within a tier for which the present selection procedure is being held;
- d) Candidates working abroad carrying out university research or teaching activities with positions corresponding to those specified in this selection announcement, based on the equivalency lists drawn up by the competent Ministry and attached to Italian Ministerial Decree no. 236, 2nd May, 2011.

Admission requisites must be held by applicants within the deadline for application submission.

2. The following categories may not participate in this public selection procedure:

- a) Individuals not entitled to exercise civil and political rights;
- b) Individuals who have been dismissed or relieved from office with a Public Administration;
- c) Individuals who have been dismissed from a civil service job as provided in Art. 127, Letter d) of Presidential Decree No. 3, January 10, 1957;
- d) Individuals who are married or related, up to the fourth degree, to professors belonging to the recruiting Department including the Rector, General Director, any member of the Board of Directors;

3. Candidates are granted provisional admission, as the University Administration reserves the right to exclude him/her for just cause at any time until the end of the procedure; in this case a decree shall be issued by the Rector and the excluded candidate shall be notified by the Administration.

Art. 3 - Application Submission Procedure and Deadline

1. order as indicated in the numbered list provided by the applicant in the application up to the maximum number in accordance with the requirements.

2. Candidates cannot make references to other publications/documents presented previously to the University of L'Aquila or to any other administration/institution.
3. Once the selection procedure is completed, the selected candidate shall submit the publications presented, in original or in copy certified conform to the original.
4. Works published in Italy will be assessed if they comply with legal standards and are pursuant to Leg. Decree n.660/1945 as amended by Italian Law 106/2004 and Presidential Decree n. 252/2006. This requires certification to be provided with the application or a personal declaration pursuant to Presidential Decree n. 445/2000. For works published abroad the date and place of publication must be indicated.
5. Publications written in a foreign language must be accompanied by a certified Italian translation by official translator or consulate/embassy. The translation process is not required for publications written in French, English, German and Spanish.

Art. 6 - Renouncing Participation

Candidates wishing to renounce participation in the selection procedure are required to write to the Rector to declare their intentions using the same modalities specified for application consignment, including in their letter a photocopy of a valid identity document. Their renouncement shall be made official during the first meeting following receipt of renouncement.

Art. 7 - Nomination of the Examining Board

1. The Examining Board, made up of three first tier professors, among whom two from other universities, is named by the Department requesting the position and appointed by a Rector's Decree. One member must be chosen among high profile experts from a university or research center in another OECD country. Unless documented reasons exist, at least one third of the Board members is to be reserved to women.

The members of the Examining Board are chosen by the Department Council among those professors connected with the academic recruitment field or the academic discipline concerning the position object of the public selection procedure.

The following cannot be nominated:

- Professors who have received a negative assessment as provided in Art. 6, Paragraph 7 of Italian Law 240/2010;
- Members of the University political board, those who hold a political office as well as representatives of trade unions or professional associations;
- Individuals condemned for crimes – even if not yet sentenced – in Book II of the Italian Penal Code (“crimes by civil servants against public administration”).

2. The Rector's Decree appointing the Examining Board shall be published on the University's Albo Ufficiale and on the University website.

3. From the date the Rector's Decree nominating the Examining Board is published candidates have 10 days to state their opposition to any of the components of the Board. After this period, and anyhow after the first meeting of the Board, no instances may be presented.

4. The Board nominates a President and Secretary. The Board operates with the presence of all its members and takes decisions unanimously. Participation in all Board activities is mandatory for all members.

5. The Board, upon notifying the head of the selection procedure of date and time of the meetings and after receiving authorization from the Rector, may hold meetings using telematic technology. At the end of the meeting the minutes must be drawn up, approved, signed and forwarded to the competent administration office. Where applicable, reference has to be made to the University's Regulations (Rector's Decree n. 467 April 18, 2016).

Art. 8 - Role and Duties of the Examining Board

1. In the first session the Board, having determined that in compliance with related laws, no incompatibility factors are present, outlines the following:

- a) the assessment criteria of CV, qualifications, teaching and research activities, publications;
- b) the criteria for testing Italian language skills for foreign applicants and English language skills, if required.

In the first session the Board also sets the date for testing language skills according to letter b) of the present article as well as the calendar of meetings.

For assessing the candidate's scientific qualification, teaching and research activities, publications and overall CV the Board refers to criteria and parameters in compliance with acknowledged international qualitative standards within the parameters indicated in Ministerial Decree n. 344/2011, considering also the professor's specific functions, the teaching, scientific and tutoring activities as well as all other requirements required by the Department indicated in Art. 1 of this selection announcement.

The Board will consider the following criteria:

- original and innovative scientific production as well as rigorous methodology;
- personal contribution of the candidate, ascertained analytically, in co-authored publications;
- consistency of the candidate's activity with the subjects included in the academic recruitment field and/or academic disciplines object of the selection procedure; scientific relevance of editorial classification of the publications and their diffusion within the scientific community;
- temporal continuity of scientific production also in relation to the evolution of knowledge in the specific academic field.

2. The head of the selection procedure is immediately notified of the resolutions referred to in paragraph 1., which are to be published on the University's Albo Ufficiale and on the website for at least 7 days before the Board can move on to the next phase of the selection procedure.

3. In the following meetings the Board grades the candidate's publications, the CV, the qualifications and the teaching and research activities. Each member of the Board individually attributes a grade, then the Board jointly assesses each candidate, and compares them. Once this has been completed the Board draws up a ranking of the candidates and deliberates (by majority) the winner of the selection procedure.

4. All proceedings are contained in the minutes of the meetings, including assessment of the candidates; after establishing their validity, they are to be published on the University's Albo Ufficiale and on the website.

Art. 9 - Time Limits of the Selection Procedure

The Board is to conclude all necessary actions within two months from the Rector's Decree nominating its members.

The Rector may extend the deadline only once and for no more than two months only in the case of exceptional and documented reasons brought forth by the President of the Board before the established deadline expires.

If all procedures are not concluded even within the extended deadline, the Rector shall proceed to the substitution of the Board members.

Art. 10 - Determining Validity of Proceedings

Within thirty days after the proceedings are consigned, the Rector issues a Decree establishing their validity and declaring the selected candidate. The Rector's Decree and the proceedings are published on the University's Albo Ufficiale and on the website. This, to all effects, represents official notification and from that date candidates have a period of time to file a complaint. The Decree is immediately passed on to the relevant Body in charge of the appointment, as pursuant to the following Art. 11.

If the Rector finds any irregularities in the proceedings he/she may make a motivated request to the Board to obtain rectification.

Art. 11 – Call

Within two months of the Rector's approval of the proceedings, the Department Council that had requested the selection procedure must propose a date to officially appoint the selected candidate, pursuant to Art. 8 of related Regulations quoted in the introduction. The Department's deliberation must be approved by the University's Board of Directors.

If the Department does not issue any appointment resolution, the provisions of Art. 8, Paragraph 2 of the above mentioned Regulations are applied.

Art. 12 - Documents for Contract Stipulation

The selected candidate shall present all required documents together with all declarations certifying their requisites for appointment as pursuant to Presidential Decree 445/2000 Art. 46 and 47 to the University's Settore Personale Docente e Ricercatori office as specified in Art. 3 paragraph 6, numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 8, 9, 10, 11 in this announcement. He/she shall also present a Personal Declaration of Certification regarding their marital status, household members, whether they belong to legally protected categories, whether they receive a pension, whether they are members of professional registers; they must also declare that they are not employed in any other public or private company or institution as pursuant to Presidential Decree 445/2000, Art. 46 and 47. If the selected candidate is already employed by a Public Administration, he/she must submit a statement accepting the position at the University of L'Aquila; if employed by any other private company or institution he/she must quit the job and submit a statement accepting the position.

The selected candidate who is already employed by a Public Administration or University must submit a service statement issued by his/her administration indicating the position as well as the salary specifying all the items which determine it.

The selected candidate must undergo a medical check-up to obtain a certificate from the University doctor Leila Fabiani stating that their health allows them to carry out the job duties required; in the certificate it must specifically be stated that the candidate is immune from diseases dangerous to public health.

The University reserves the right to carry out sample checks to verify the information and certification presented.

If the candidate selected is a non-EU citizen he/she may present declarations pursuant to Presidential Decree 445/2000 in reference to facts that can be certified by Italian public entities; if the documents or declarations are issued by the relevant authorities of the applicant's Country of origin, they must be submitted together with a translation into Italian authenticated by the Italian consular authority certifying conformity with the original.

The selected candidate shall also submit a statement regarding his/her option for the employment contract.

Art. 13 – Appointment

The appointment is made by a decree of the Rector, sent by registered post with notice of receipt to the selected candidate and to the Ministry for all the necessary duties.

The University's Board of Directors decide a date to officially appoint the Professor, following proposal from the Department Council. To this end the time needed to stipulate the contract and the University research and teaching activity needs must be kept in mind.

Art. 14 – Rights and duties of the Professor - Salary and Social Security Benefits

Research and teaching activities, rights and duties of the Professor are regulated by the applicable laws on the legal status of teaching staff and by the University Regulations.

The contract is subject to all social security and fiscal taxes.

Art. 15 - Personal Data

The handling of candidates' personal information is disciplined by Leg. Decree n. 196, 30 June, 2003. Personal information supplied by the candidates in the application form shall be collected by the offices of
